Broyhill Fails To Win Tax Exemption

WASHINGTON (AP)—Rep. Broyhill (R-Va.) appears to have lost his fight to exclude Virginians from having to pay taxes under Maryland's new withholding tax law.

At a conference here yesterday with Treasury Department officials, the Virginia Republican said, "these just don't seem to be any way to do it."

Department officials told him, he said, that federal employees who work in Maryland but live in Virginia can't be exempted from a federal law providing cooperation with states on withholding taxes.

Canadian Official Tells Arlingtonian His Country Re-Tests Vaccine Output

Canada's successful experience with Salk polio vaccine was cited today by an Arlington, Va., housewife and advertising executive as a means of reassuring American parents who may be concerned about the Government's intention to suspend additional injections until the U. S. Public Health Service checked each batch of vaccine.

Mrs. Virginia E. Miller, of 1330 14th Street, Arlington, Va., wife of three sons and wife of a Washington, D. C. newsman and public relations advisor, Harold J. Miller, revealed that she had received from Honorable Paul Martin, Canada's Minister of National Health and Welfare, a long-time friend, his recent statement on the Salk vaccine, which said in part:

The letter was made public by Sen. John Pastore (D-R.I.), chairman of a House-Senate atomic subcommittee on international cooperation.

SO MUCH MORE CAR... AT SUCH A LOW PRICE!

Have you compared price tags on Plymouth and the other two cars in the lowest-price field lately? And, by the way, have you checked prices on the medium-price cars that claim they cost as little as Plymouth?

Model for model, all low-price cars are priced about the same. The important thing is that the Plymouth price includes such items as electric windshield wipers, an oil bath air cleaner, resistor-type spark plugs, and a high-output generator; items you have to pay extra for on the other cars.
